McBeath Wins Special Prize

Buting the afternoon sprints yestercay the two leading teams made no attempt to add to their point totals.
They preferred not to take any chances of injury in these deahes, and you conien't blame them, seeing they were leading the other teams and didn't actually need the points. Walter Rutt and Alex McBeath, three laps behind, wan the special prize of $50 for winping the greatet number of points in these ten sprints.

In adding to their point totals the trailers, realizing that they must regain their lost laps before their points cut any figure, went'at their work half-

The tenth sprint was won by Speissens, with Fgg, Fitzsimmons and Lands following in that order. Bello and Gaffney, with twenty-four points, were the winners of the special prize.

Tom Bello took the first of the tennight sprints, with Eddie Madden second, Egg third and Taylor fourth. Bello beat out Egg in a long sprint and Madden also nosed out Oscar by a quick jump of ten feet from the linish.

The tenth sprint was won by Speissens and Lands is expected. Thorp made the journey to California last winter to under the game between W. and J. And California, he being the first Eastern man to be chosen for such a position.

Thorp has been selected is that of the Rutherford and Nutley high schools, of New Jersey, to be played on Ashland and Madden also nosed out Oscar by Field, at East Orange, next Saturday. This is a game to play off a tie and is expected to be hard fought.
